

CHAMBER ACCORD IN CONCERT

Nov. 3, 2016, 7:30 pm at Bay Village Sarasota

Chamber Accord will present “A Celebration of French Music for Piano and Strings.” This exciting program of music from the Baroque Era to the 20th Century will feature Gabriel Faure’s sumptuous Piano Quartet No. 1, St. Saens’ dazzling Introduction and Rondo for violin and piano, and Debussy’s exuberant L’Isle Joyeuse along with much loved short pieces by Couperin and Delibes.

Chamber Accord performs in varied combinations of chamber music such as duos, trios, and piano quartets, in addition to solos. The four musicians are seasoned concert artists who have played chamber and solo concerts throughout the world. They are well known performers in the Sarasota area. Sean O’Neil is former concertmaster of the Venice Symphony and violinist with the Sarasota Orchestra. Shawn Snider is principal violist in the Venice Symphony and violist in the Southwest Florida Symphony. Cellist Ann Alton is principal cellist of the Charlotte Symphony and also plays with the Venice Symphony. Described by Daniel Barenboim as “a highly gifted pianist and musician,” pianist Gabrielius Alekna has garnered more than a dozen top prizes in competitions on both sides of the Atlantic, such as Hilton Head (United States), Maria Canals (Spain), and Čiurlionis (Lithuania) International Piano Competitions. He has recorded critically acclaimed piano works on the Naxos and Tocatta Classics labels. Chamber Accord was founded in 2014.
